DON'T FORGET...

We finish today for half term. We're off all next week and the children also get the day off on Monday 29 October, which is a staff training day. They return to school on Tuesday 30 October. Happy holidays!

Whilst you have a bit of spare time when you aren't doing the school run (wry smiles all round...), if you haven't already gone onto Ofsted Parent Voice to complete the short survey about our school, please could you try to fit it in? It only takes 5 minutes to complete and it's the best way to get your views across to Ofsted. The inspections are very short and intense and there is no time built in for parent/carer meetings, so this is the way to make sure your voice is heard. We've had 119 responses so far – can we get to 150 by the end of half term? Go on, you know you want to....!

READING CHALLENGE 2018

Our prize for once again winning the Manchester Libraries' Reading Challenge competition was a visit from children's author Ciaran Murtagh. He was brilliant! The children were really hooked by his assembly and workshops and we would love it if you could encourage your child to write their own version of Lava Lake, which they started with Ciaran on Thursday. They can bring in their stories and there will be prizes for the best ones.

WELL DONE!

Yet more talented Cavendish children winning trophies. These 4 superstars won silver in the Ho Shin Do Karate Manchester inter-school championship!

CAVENDISH ANGELS!

We are very proud to have been nominated for an Historic England Angel Award for our part in the Suffrage project and exhibition earlier this year. PLEASE PLEASE will you follow the link and vote for the project!!
