

The Big Adventure Balloons

During our Big Adventure last week, all of the children wrote out a wish for the year and attached it to a balloon, all of which were released before we set off home for school. The balloons have been pretty busy and reached up to 200 miles so far, and that's just with a bit of wind. Imagine how far those wishes can go with a bit of support and hard work!